

GEMS OF EUROPE

TRAVEL SUMMARY

Whiteboard Tours Gems of Europe: Zurich to Rome in 10 will have you delighting in the majesty, diversity, and cultural quirks that make this place so...Swiss! From lakeside towns to flowerbox-perfect villages, and hiking trails surrounded by cut-glass mountains — you'll find yourself in a nature-lover's nirvana. Peek at its peaks, marvel at its love of precision, and savour a daily dose of cow-milking, chocolate, and cogwheel trains. In Italy we visit the Charming town of Cinque Terre and then on to Michelangelo's stunning David and the Uffizi Gallery in Florence, and ends with Rome's ancient Forum, Colosseum, Pantheon, Vatican Museums, and Sistine Chapel. You'll also enjoy guided neighbourhood walks, memorable meals, and full-bodied Italian wines. Italy's three greatest cities are like fine gelato — why settle for just one flavour if you can get three scoops at once.

SWITZERLAND

DAY 1

Arrive in Switzerland

Once you land at Zurich Airport, you shall be transferred to your Hotel, after some time for rest after a long Flight, we'll meet at 5 p.m. at our hotel for a "Welcome to Switzerland" meeting. Then we'll take a meandering evening walk through Switzerland's most charming lakeside town, and get acquainted with one another over dinner together.

Peaks of Engelberg And Mount Titlis

After Breakfast, nestled between two mountain peaks, Engelberg is the perfect place for an Alpine adventure. We'll begin our day riding Engelberg's unique rotating gondola all the way up to the snowy 10,000-foot summit of Mount Titlis for breath-taking panoramic views. This afternoon we'll gather to tour the town's Benedictine monastery, with its own cheese-making operation. The rest of the day is all yours to explore the beautiful city of Lucerne, find a cosy mountain hut offering beautiful views, or shop for some amazing Swiss chocolates.

Hiking in the Berner Oberland

Don't sleep in this morning — the day is all yours to experience some of Switzerland's best hiking. Join your guide for an optional ride to the icy air streams across your face, snow crunches under your feet, and the view nearly takes your breath away: on one side the view of the Mittel Land up to the Vosges, on the other the Aletsch glacier, bordered by four thousand metre peaks. Standing on the Jungfrau 3,454 metres above sea level, you can feel it with your first step: this is a different world. It's one you have to experience. Later, we shall visit Interlaken for an orientation Tour followed by some shopping time in Switzerland

DAY 4

Matterhorn and the Heart of the Alps

This morning we'll leave drive to the heart of Switzerland's Berner Oberland. Along the way we'll visit the quaint mountain village of Zermatt, framed by Switzerland's iconic Matterhorn. We'll have free time to explore the village and enjoy the views of one of the most recognizable mountains on the planet before we zip back to our hotel for dinner this evening.

DAY 5

Winding Our Way to Italy

This morning we'll have an encore performance of the Alps as we make our way across the mountains and dive into Italy. We'll wind our way down through the hills, past pristine lakes and the farms of northern Italy, en route to our Mediterranean getaway. This afternoon's destination is the seaside Cinque Terre town of Monterosso al Mare. During today's trip, you'll get a thorough orientation to tomorrow's fun, free day possibilities. Tonight, we'll share a tasty dinner together in this corner of Italy where pesto was invented and the seafood was swimming this morning.

DAY 6

Free Day in the Cinque Terre

Today is entirely up to you, and each village along the Cinque Terre is just a few minutes away by train. Pick a village to explore, have a meal or Breakfast is provided, but there are no group activities today. Those returning home can catch a short flight from Bergen to Copenhagen, or other European cities for your direct flight home. Farvell!

PISA

DAY 7

Pisa, Florence and Michelangelo's David

Rested and refreshed, today we're ready to take on the impressive art and history of Florence. But first, we'll stop in Pisa for lunch and see if its infamous tower is still leaning. We'll continue to Florence, on a historical introduction to the highlights of the Renaissance. We'll learn about life in those world-changing times, and gaze at Brunelleschi's magnificent cathedral dome and Ghiberti's amazingly 3-D Baptistery doors. Our walk ends with a bang at the Accademia Gallery, home to Michelangelo's most famous sculptures: the rough-hewn Prisoners and his greatest masterpiece, David. Your evening is free to explore Florence before we head for Dinner.
