DAY 2

The Eiffel & the Montmartre

Today after Breakfast, Let's begin where Paris did, on the Ile de la Cité. You shall be leading your tour of the city's early history, including a pair of the world's most significant Medieval Gothic churches: the resilient and legendary Notre-Dame Cathedral and a visit to the exquisite Sainte-Chapelle. We shall then head to Luxembourg Gardens and drive through Montparnasse. You take a stroll through the bohemian Latin Quarter, with free time for lunch on your own. We shall then visit the Eiffel Tower and climb up to the second level, from where you can enjoy the magnificent view of the whole city. Post the tour of Eiffel take a long walk from Alexander Bridge, covering Arc de Triomphe and Champs Eleyesse. Later, then hike up Montmartre to tour the colourful neighbourhood that was the haunt of artistic geniuses a century ago — including Van Gogh, Picasso, and Renoir — and generations of hopeful artists since. We shall drive to the Montmartre Quarter where we shall end our walk with spectacular views of Paris from the Sacré-Cœur Basilica. We'll shall then enjoy dinner together.

Marais District ,the Louvre & Chateaux de Versailles

Today after Breakfast at Hotel, explore the elaborate palace that Louis XIV, XV, and XVI called home. You shall make the 30-minute trip to Versailles, where you can witness the dazzling Hall of Mirrors and other sumptuous rooms of the palace. You'll then have free time to wander through the expansive gardens. We shall then Zip Back to Paris diverse, history-layered Marais district. As we walk, we'll learn about enlightened 17th-century urban planning at the beautiful Place des Vosges, the cultural roots of the Jewish Quarter, and how the French Revolution grew from this neighbourhood. We shall then visit the Tuileries Garden, and reach The Louvre. This evening, Europe's greatest museum — the Louvre — is open late, and we'll take full advantage of that. You'll come face to face with the works of Raphael, Delacroix, and Leonardo, and timeless treasures including Mona Lisa, Winged Victory, Venus de Milo, and hundreds more. Tonight, we'll enjoy a farewell feast at Paris at an Indian Restaurant. Salut!
