01 Welcome to Paris (3 Nights)

Once you land at Paris Airport. Check In at your hotel in Paris after 2 p.m. Rest for some time, before we start our first day in Paris. At 5 P.M, we'll have a group meeting at our Hotel, before we leave for the Seine River Cruise (Enchanted Cruise -1 hour). Then we'll celebrate the start of our European adventure over dinner together at an Indian Restaurant today.

Meals: Continental Breakfast + Indian Dinner

Activities: Seine River Cruise (1 Hour)

02 The Eiffel and the Montmartre

Today after Breakfast, Let's begin where Paris did, on the Ile de la Cite. You shall be leading your tour of the city's early history, including a pair of the world's most significant Medieval Gothic churches: the resilient and legendary Notre-Dame Cathedral and a visit to the exquisite Sainte-Chapelle. We shall then head to Luxembourg Gardens and drive through Montparnasse. You take a stroll through the bohemian Latin Quarter, with free time for lunch on your own. We shall then visit the Eiffel Tower and climb up to the second level, from where you can enjoy the magnificent view of the whole city. Post the tour of Eiffel take a long walk from Alexander Bridge, covering Arc de Triomphe and Champs Elyessee. Later, then hike up Montmartre to tour the colourful neighbourhood that was the haunt of artistic geniuses a century ago — including Van Gogh, Picasso, and Renoir — and generations of hopeful artists since. We shall drive to the Montmartre Quarter where we shall end our walk with spectacular views of Paris from the Sacré-Cœur Basilica. We'll shall then enjoy dinner together.

Overnight in Paris

Meals: Continental Breakfast + Indian Dinner

Activities: Entrance Ticket to 2nd Floor of Eiffel Tower + Saint Chapelle + City Tour

Today, later at Night we have an opportunity, to witness the City of Lights – Paris By Night (Optional)

03 Chateaux de Versailles, Marais District & the Louvre (Optional)

Today after Breakfast at Hotel, explore the elaborate palace that Louis XIV, XV, and XVI called home. You shall make the 30-minute trip to Versailles, where you can witness the dazzling Hall of Mirrors and other sumptuous rooms of the palace. You'll then have free time to wander through the expansive gardens. We shall then Zip Back to Paris diverse, history-layered Marais district. As we walk, we'll learn about enlightened 17th-century urban planning at the beautiful Place des Vosges, the cultural roots of the Jewish Quarter, and how the French Revolution grew from this neighbourhood. We shall then visit the Tuileries Garden, and reach The Louvre. This evening, Europe's greatest museum — the Louvre — is open late, and we'll take full advantage of that. You'll come face to face with the works of Raphael, Delacroix, and Leonardo, and timeless treasures including Mona Lisa, Winged Victory, Venus de Milo, and hundreds more. Tonight, we'll enjoy a farewell feast at Paris at an Indian Restaurant. Salut!

05 Flanders Fields and Beautiful Bruges

Today we'll meet our driver and board our bus for a drive to the WWI battlefields around Ypres. Half a million soldiers were killed here, making it one of the deadliest — and today the most hallowed — stretches of land along the Western Front. With the aid of a local expert, we'll tour the American Cemetery, visit a thought-provoking museum, and see "the fields where poppies grow." After lunch together, we're off to Bruges, where, we'll meet our savvy local guide who will introduce us to the pedestrian-friendly streets and alleyways of Gothic Bruges, including a tour of the Memling Museum — showcasing several of Hans Memling's masterpieces, all housed within one of Europe's oldest medieval hospitals. Our afternoon continues with a visit to a Bruges chocolatier, where we'll learn about the artistry and traditions of Belgium's most mouth-watering export. After a free afternoon, we'll regroup for a brewery tour to learn about what makes Belgian beer famous around the globe and enjoy a taste ourselves. The remainder of the evening is free. Dinner at an Indian Restaurant

06 Challenging the Sea and Tulips

Today after Breakfast at Hotel and check out formalities, we shall head to Netherlands. We'll discover how a country stays dry when nearly half of its land is below sea level. Over centuries, the Dutch created an immense system of dams, barriers, and dikes for protection from the North Sea — the Delta works. We'll explore these feats of modern engineering culminating with a tour of one of earth's largest moving structures — the Maeslant storm surge barrier — and gain a better appreciation of the fragility of the Low Countries. We'll then move to Europe's biggest Gardens — filled with acres of flowers — learning about the worldwide distribution of beauty that begins each day at the Keukenhof Gardens, the international and independent showcase for the Dutch floricultural. We then check in to our Hotel, followed by a walking tour of this charming town Haarlem.

Overnight in Haarlem

Meals: Continental Breakfast + Indian Dinner

07 Progressive, Artistic Amsterdam

Explore the exquisite Dutch countryside away from the busy city of Amsterdam on this Netherlands Vacation! Wake up and feast on a scrumptious breakfast. On the second day of your Netherlands tour, venture out of the city to take a half-day tour to the famous little village of Zaanse Schans with your family. Explore this unique historical town, with its majestic windmills and wooden houses and traditional crafts. Visit a clog maker and observe how the famous Dutch wooden shoe is made and proceed to visit a cheese farm afterward. Lastly, you can visit the 17th-century working windmill to experience the history of the Dutch countryside.

After your amazing half day tour, get back to Amsterdam, this afternoon gets chummy with this great city's gabled houses, bridges, and canals while learning why the Golden Age glimmered so brightly here. Take an historic walk through the heart of the city, stopping to visit the Anne Frank House for a thought-provoking look at the hideaway of Anne and her family during the Nazi occupation of the Netherlands. Continue on to a Hop on the Canal Cruise, later visit a local "coffeeshop" to learn about this nation's creative, pragmatic approach to drug policy. Your evening is free for more adventures in Amsterdam or back in Haarlem.

Overnight in Haarlem

Meals: Continental Breakfast + Indian Dinner

08 Tulip Treats and Rhine Views

Today after Breakfast at Hotel and check out formalities, we shall proceed towards Germany. We shall halt at Cologne and visit the famous Cathedral and have some free time for Lunch.
