

SCANDANAVIA

THE TRAVEL SUMMARY

Scandinavia is Western Europe's most prosperous, pristine, and progressive corner. Starting in Sweden, your Whiteboard guide will treat you to the top sights, including Stockholm's impressive Vasa Ship Museum, historic Kalmar Castle, Copenhagen's fun-loving pedestrian centre, Denmark's charming Roskilde, Oslo's proud maritime museums and whimsical Frogner Park sculpture garden, a nostalgic Norwegian open-air museum, and a waterfall-filled fjord cruise — all ending with a harborside walking tour of ruddy-cheeked Bergen. Join us for the Best of Scandinavia in 13 Days!

WELCOME TO SWEDEN

We'll meet at our Stockholm hotel at 4 p.m. for a Välkomna till Scandinavian get-together, followed by dinner and an orientation walk around our neighbourhood. Sleep in Stockholm (2 nights).

STOCKHOLM

DAY 2

STOCKHOLM'S OLD CITY & THE VASA

This morning we'll enjoy a walking tour through the cobbled alleyways of Stockholm's Gamla Stan (Old City), learning about its historic Stortorget Square, cathedral, and Royal Palace. After free time for lunch, we'll board a boat and cross the harbour to visit the Vasa Museum, where we'll marvel at the remains of the 200-foot warship Vasa, which sank here on her maiden voyage nearly 400 years ago. Your late afternoon is free to explore more of this cosmopolitan city.

Boat: ½ hour.

COZY KALMAR

DAY 3

MODERN STOCKHOLM & COZY KALMAR

This morning we'll tour Stockholm's City Hall, home of the Nobel Prize banquet and striking mosaic murals celebrating humanism and the ideal of people working together in community. Then, after stopping along the Göta Canal for a lunch break, we'll drive through beautiful birch forests on our way to the seafaring, bridge-and-water-laced town of Kalmar, where we'll sleep (1 night).

KALMAR CASTLE

DAY 4

KALMAR CASTLE & COPENHAGEN

Today we'll explore what may be Sweden's most striking, historically significant building: bay-and-moat-ringed Kalmar Castle. As we tour the castle's interior and beautiful grounds, we'll learn about Sweden's 16th-century struggle for independence from the Danes. Then, to reach Copenhagen, we'll drive across the awe-inspiring five-mile Öresund bridge and tunnel connecting Sweden and Denmark. We'll get to know our neighbourhood by strolling up to the lively Strøget pedestrian centre, followed by dinner together. Sleep in Copenhagen (2 nights).

COPENHAGEN

DAY 5

PLAYFUL AND PROGRESSIVE COPENHAGEN

This morning we'll dive into the sights and sounds of Copenhagen's historical centre on a walking tour with a local guide. The rest of your day is free to enjoy Europe's best people-watching on the Strøget, tour the National Museum, visit the fanciful Tivoli Gardens, or experience the counterculture of Christiania.

ROSENBURG CASTLE

DAY 6

ROSENBURG CASTLE & FERRY TO OSLO

After breakfast we'll drive to Roskilde to prowl through the evocative Viking Ship Museum, where we'll learn about the rough-and-tumble, yet surprisingly sophisticated, Viking culture of a thousand years ago. We'll also visit Denmark's venerable Roskilde Cathedral, the resting place of 38 kings and queens of Denmark and the first Gothic church ever built of brick. Then, we'll stop for a tour of the Renaissance Rosenburg Castle, home to the Danish crown jewels. Then after some free time for lunch, we'll hop aboard an overnight ferry for Oslo. It's a big boat; choose to dine at a buffet fit for a Viking or grab something smaller at the ship's café. After dinner, you can dance the night away in the nightclub, linger in the tax-free shop, or enjoy the scenery as we cruise to Norway in style. Sleep on ferry (1 night)

DAY 7

HISTORIC & ARTISTIC OSLO

OVERNIGHT IN OSLO

Meals

Continental Breakfast
+ Indian Dinner

We'll greet the sun as we glide up the Oslo fjord — one of the most scenic parts of our tour — and into Norway's capital. Once ashore, we'll take a walking tour around the harbour and through the heart of Oslo, learning about Norway's history and politics along the way. With your Oslo Pass, you'll have plenty of free time to visit the Norwegian Resistance Museum, or your choice of the city's other fine museums. Before tonight's dinner, we'll gather for a visit to Frogner Park, home to Gustav Vigeland's whimsical, lifelike sculptures. Sleep in Oslo (2 nights)

NORWAY

DAY 8

NORWAY'S SEAFARING PAST

Today we'll cruise across the harbour to Bygdøy peninsula for a treasure trove of nautical history. We'll visit the Viking Ship Museum to learn about Scandinavia's best collection of Viking vessels and artefacts. Nearby, you'll also have time to see the impressive Maritime Museum — as well as special museums devoted to the innovative Fram polar explorer and the ocean-crossing rafts of adventurer Thor Heyerdahl (Kon-Tiki and Ra II). Inspired by Norway's seafaring history, you'll be free to sail back to Oslo's harbour, you'll have the rest of your afternoon and evening free in this vibrant city.

Boat ½ Hour.

MAIHAUGEN

DAY 9

MAIHAUGEN & GIANT'S COUNTRY

Driving northwest from Oslo, today we'll learn about daily Norwegian life and traditions. We'll tour the beautifully situated and remarkable 12th-century stave church, constructed entirely from wood. After a scenic afternoon drive through farmland and forests, we'll settle into our rustic, creaky mountain hotel, located in the heart of Giant's Country. We'll share a traditional dinner together and sleep in the Jotunheimen Mountains (1 night).

FJORD COUNTRY

DAY 10

BERGEN & FJORD COUNTRY

Make sure your camera is charged: today is scenery day! After breakfast our bus will climb the highest road in northern Europe (4,600 ft.) to the windswept Jotunheimen for a panorama of glittering snow and 8,100-foot peaks. We'll then take a dramatic corkscrew drive down to sea level and hop aboard a ferry for a 2½-hour scenic Sognefjord cruise between cliffs and waterfalls (replicating the fjord cruise portion of the "Norway in a Nutshell" route). We'll enjoy lunch on the ferry, then we're back aboard our bus for one more scenic stretch of highway before you're free for dinner and the rest of the evening in Bergen, where we'll sleep (2 nights).

BERGEN

DAY 11

ALL DAY IN CHARMING BERGEN

A local guide will walk us through the salty history of this seafaring town, starting at the Bryggens Museum and continuing through the enchanting old Hanseatic wharf area, where wooden warehouses lean together and recall their glory days as a centre of North Atlantic trade. To cap off our morning, we'll ride the funicular to the top of Mount Fløyen for thrilling views of Bergen, islands, and fjords. The rest of your afternoon is free to do some hiking, explore more of Bergen, or buy one of those hand-knit wool sweaters that caught your eye back at the wharf. This evening we'll gather for a hearty Norwegian feast to share travel memories and toast new friends. Skål!
